EXECUTIVE ORDER 15-04

RESCISSION OF EXECUTIVE ORDERS

WHEREAS, certain Executive Orders have been rendered ineffective due to either the enactment of superseding law, subsequent Executive Orders, internal expiration provisions, or are no longer needed for the efficient administration of state government; and

WHEREAS, the existence of obsolete Executive Orders can create confusion on executive agencies and the public regarding the current administrative policies and direction of state government, and are an unnecessary regulatory burden;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, in keeping with the principles of regulatory reform and improvement, declare my commitment to streamline and simplify the operations of state government by eliminating unnecessary, outdated, and conflicting policies and directives of the Office of the Governor. To accomplish that purpose, by virtue of the authority vested in me, I hereby order and direct that the following Executive Orders are rescinded:
